

Safety Message for IMEA Members

Restoration Safety

During outage restoration, hazards increase due to downed lines, unstable structures, and long work hours. Treat all downed conductors as energized, watch for backfeed from generators, and manage fatigue carefully. Slow down, stay focused, and don't let urgency override safety.